Enhancing Quality of Life through the Science of Orthopaedic Medicine

THE ART OF REBRANDING A HEALTHCARE INSTITUTION
By Frederick M. Azar, M.D.
Campbell Clinic Chief of Staff

Recently, our team at Campbell Clinic was faced with a challenge - rebranding our identity. While this is not an easy task for any organization, creating a new identity for healthcare organization - particularly a 100 year old healthcare organization - presents unique challenges.

In the coming months, you will see our new identity on our web site, signage, billboards and even on television. We look forward to using our new identity as we serve patients in our next century of success.
