

Internationally Renowned Experts in Sports Medicine & Orthopaedic Research to speak at 22nd Triennial

You are hereby warmly invited to join the festivities of the Willis C. Campbell Club Triennial, October 25-27. What a weekend we have planned for you!

Our Distinguished Guest Professors will include:

James R. Andrews, MD, Chairman and Director of the Andrews Sports Medicine Institute (ASMI), Clinical Professor of Orthopaedic Surgery at the University of Alabama Birmingham, and Senior Orthopaedic Consultant for athletic teams at the Universities of Alabama, Troy, West Alabama, Tuskegee and Samford, as well as Senior Consultant for the Washington Redskins Professional Football Team, Medical Director for the Tampa Bay Rays Professional Baseball Team and the Ladies Professional Golf Association, will share his perspectives on a lifetime career of preventing and treating injuries in athletes at all levels.

Thomas A. Einhorn, MD, Chairman of the Department of Orthopaedic Surgery and Professor of Orthopaedic Surgery, Biochemistry and Biomedical Engineering at Boston University, winner of the Marshall R. Urist and Alfred R. Shands, Jr. Awards from the Orthopaedic Research Society. Kappa Delta Award winner from the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons and numerous other awards, will share perspectives on his work in the role of molecular medicine in orthopaedic surgery.

We have many other engaging scientific discussions planned, using a point-counterpoint format to discuss issues of relevance to today's orthopaedic surgeon. Topics planned include:

- Acute Achilles tendon ruptures: operative or nonoperative treatment?
- Metal-on-metal hip replacement
- Healthcare reform in America: red, green and blue
- Femoral-acetabular dysplasia: an over-diagnosed entity?
- The use of PRP – benefit or placebo?
- Bisphosphonates: do their benefits outweigh the risk of femoral fractures?
- EMRs – help or hype?
- Adolescent idiopathic scoliosis: to brace or not to brace?

And much, much more!

7.5 Category 1 CME Credit Hours will be available.

In addition, we have a number of FUN activities planned for alumni and spouses!

- Fall Floral Arranging Demonstration and Current Exhibits at Dixon Gallery & Gardens
- Walking Tour of Downtown Memphis
- Tennis
- Photo and Video Booth ("I'm ready for my close-up, Mr. Demille!")
- Fabulous Gala Dinner and Dancing
